We offer for rent a parking space in an underground garage in a renovated neo-renaissance house from the end of the 19th century in the sought-after location of Prague 2 - Vinohrady. The residential house has been completely renovated with all architectural elements preserved and is equipped with a camera system and security. The house includes a renowned Italian pastry shop with products imported directly from Italy. The location has all civic amenities and excellent transport accessibility by car and public transport. The house is located just a few steps from the Náměstí Míru metro station, a few minutes walk to Wenceslas Square. Nearby are many cafes, renowned restaurants, bistros, local shops, and the popular Riegrovy sady park.
